

Wednesday March 2, 2016: Pre-Conference Workshop

Time	Topic	Presenter
8:00–8:30	Registration and Breakfast
8:30–8:35	Welcome and Opening Remarks	Joanne Archer
8:35–10:20	Improving your communications	Michael Grinder
10:20–10:35	Health Break
10:35–12:00	Improving your communications	Michael Grinder
12:00–12:45	Lunch
12:45–2:30	Educating your staff	Eleanor Elston
2:30–2:45	Health Break
2:45–4:25	Educating your staff	Eleanor Elston
4:25–4:30	Closing Remarks	Joanne Archer

Thursday March 3, 2016: Main Conference Day 1

Time	Topic	Presenter
8:00–8:30	Registration and Breakfast	Exhibitors
8:30–8:40	Welcome and Opening Remarks	PICNet Co-Director
8:40–9:00	Update on PICNet	Bruce Gamage, PICNet
9:00–9:45	Workplace Happiness	Tracy Norman, Management Development Advisor, Vancouver Coastal Health
9:45–10:15	Health Break	Exhibitors
10:15–11:30	CDI surveillance: Applying the case definition	Tara Donovan Epidemiologist, Fraser Health
11:30–11:35	Groovy Movement	Joanne Archer, PICNet
11:35–12:20	Construction conundrums: an ICP perspective of building a new hospital	Jim Gauthier SealedAir
12:20–1:20	Lunch	Exhibitors
1:20–2:05	How did it get to there from here? Understanding transmission from whole genome sequencing.	Dr. Linda Hoang Medical Microbiologist, BCCDC; Co-Director, PICNet
2:05–2:10	Groovy Movement	Joanne Archer, PICNet
2:10–2:55	Human factors engineering and its role in infection prevention	Dr. Elizabeth Bryce Medical Microbiologist, Vancouver Coastal Health; Co-Director, PICNet
2:55–3:25	Health Break	Exhibitors
3:25–4:10	Ways of communicating with healthcare workers: the old, the new, the tried... and the untried	Helen Evans Communications Officer, PICNet
4:10–4:20	Groovy Movement and wrap-up	Joanne Archer and Bruce Gamage

Friday March 4, 2016: Main Conference Day 2

Time	Topic	Speaker
8:00–8:30	Breakfast	Exhibitors
8:30–9:15	My day as a housekeeper: observations and recommendations	Jim Gauthier Diversey
9:15–10:00	Fecal Microbiota Therapy: not just another crap shoot	Dr. Ted Steiner Professor of Medicine, Infectious Diseases, UBC
10:00–10:30	Health Break	Exhibitors
10:30–11:15	Engaging and influencing physicians	Dr. Victor Leung Medical Microbiologist, Infectious Disease Physician, Providence Health Care
11:15–11:20	Groovy Movement	Joanne Archer, PICNet
11:20–12:05	Molecular epidemiology of Clostridium difficile infection in British Columbia	Dr. Agatha Jassem Senior Scientist, BCCDC Public Health Laboratory; Clinical Instructor, University of British Columbia
12:05–1:05	Lunch	Exhibitors
1:05–1:50	What healthcare providers can do to promote antibiotic stewardship	Dr. Jennifer Grant Medical Microbiologist, Infectious Disease Physician, Vancouver Coastal Health
1:50–1:55	Groovy Movement	Joanne Archer, PICNet
1:55–3:25	Short & Snappy Presentations:
	Incorporating infection control into simulations: “back where it belongs”	Shirley Clarke, School of Health Sciences, Vancouver Community College
	Learning through metaphor: the Sherlock Holmes way	Eleanor Elston, ICP, Island Health
	Chain of infection from construction perspective and a construction “Risk Assessment Matrix”	Tahir Joseph, Education and Training Coordinator, Fraser Health Authority
	Process to facilitate transfers/ admissions to residential care facilities under viral GI and RI outbreak measures	Noorsallah Esmail, IPC Consultant, and Jacqui Hlagi, IPC Consultant, Fraser Health
	PowToons: using cartoon videos to improve communications with staff about reprocessing medical devices	Janet Bristier, Coordinator for Reprocessing Practices Improvement Program, Vancouver Coastal Health
	Glowing Ambulances: cleaning and disinfection in emergency service vehicles	Lisa Young Leader, Infection Prevention and Control, BC Emergency Health Services
3:25–3:30	Groovy Movement	Joanne Archer, PICNet
3:30–3:45	Door prizes and Wrap-up	Bruce Gamage, PICNet