

Nice manicure.

Even better hiding place.

Remember: nails should be kept clean and short at all times. Long and/or chipped nails are known to harbour bacteria and interfere with effective hand hygiene. Artificial nails and nail enhancements should also not be worn as they increase the risk of glove tears and transmission of organisms.